CITY NEWS.

-The grand jury will meet again next Tuesday. Talk about another fire company is again indulged in.

- Several stables for the spring meeting are expected to arrive to-morrow. Judge Eldridge yesterday appointed J. A. Terrp guardian of Charles J. Walker.

—In the Chancery Court yesterday a decree was entered divorcing Emma from Benjamin Taylor.

The business of the grand jury yesterday was confined to indicting a number of small thieves who have been screeted and are in jail.

—Unless there are other cases for jury trial, the jury in the United States Circuit Court will be discharged to-day at 10 o'clock Attorneys will please take notice. -Licenses to marry were issued vesterday to Henry Freeman and Christina Campbell, Baldwin Harris and S. A. Smith, James J. Hampton and M. T. Hawkins. -The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association are requested to meet at 2 o'clock this evening at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall.

Crosby's Dime Museum during the week commencing Monday, April 5th. Owners of dogs desirous of making entries (there will be a large number of prises) should do so at once. The revised constitution covers forty pages of type-writer foolscap, and many changes have been made. The schedule of games for the coming season was arranged, and the association adjourn d to meet in New York the second Monday in December. The marble bust of Jackson in Court Square has been removed to a point nearer the Main street entrance, where it is more conspicuous. geant Rogers says it was done in honor of Chyeland, and insists that the cultured features of Old Hickory lit up with a smile of grim satisfaction sen one friend read to another the President's piessage to the Senate while they were seated on a neighboring beach early vesterday morning. -The Forum, edited by Lorettus S. Metcalf (nine years editor of the North American American), has made its appearance. The March number contains some, very interesting reading, namely: "Science and the State," by Prof. Alexander Winchell; "Newspapera Grose to Secti," by James Parton, "Domestic Servien," by Whipple; "How I was Laucated," by Hale; "The Coming Man," by Hammond;

"Shall the Laws Be Enforced?" etc., etc. As usual, Mansford is ahead.
He has the supply. Price 50 cents eper copy. - Attention is called to the notice of the meeting of the Ladies' Pastors' Aid Society, to take steps to secure a new carpet for the Court treet Cumber-land Pre-byterian Church. The car-pets of the church were ruined during the recent revival meetings, and the various churches and citizens in general should lend a helping hand in re- at Mulford's, 294 Main, placing them. The Court street church has been used for every mass church meeting ever held in the city, and the members have been very liberal in ouning their church, and now is the time when church members and citi-zens generally should show their appreciation of this brotherly feeling by coming forward and aiding the ladies in the good work in which they are

PERSONALS.

B. B. West will please call at 151 Causey street. Important. HUGH B. CULLEN and wife returned resterday morning from a delightful rip to Florida.

Mr. John Lemsonn, president of the Field-French Piano and Organ Co., who has been in the city for several days, left yesterday for Nashville.

S. W. GARRISON, in response to telegram announcing his mother's sudden illness, left for Louisville last Saturday night, accompanied by his sister, Miss Katie Garrison, who was visiting him at the Gayoso Hotel. As informal reception will be given to Rev. J. B. Briney by the ladies of the Linden Street Christian Church, on Friday evening of this week, affording an opportunity for our people to give a friendly greeting to the doc-tor at the beginning of his labors in our good city. Collins's grand excursion to New Orleans on March 17th from points on the Illinois Central railroad is cer-tainly one of the cheapest and most attractive trips on record, and with his very favorable reputation as an excursionist should, and no doubt will, be well and largely patronized. See full particulars in another column.

AT a meeting of the faculty of the Memphis Hospital Medical College yesterday, Dr. W. B. Rogers was elected dean for the ensuing year. Dr. Rogers has been closely identified with the college almost from its beginning, having filled one of the professorships for several years, and is thoroughly conversant with the requirements of the position. Though conversition, warmer in years. Dr. comparatively young in years, Dr. Rogers has, by hard study and close application, taken a place in the front rank of his profession, and will bring with him to his new field of action a professional experience of which any man might be proud. The college is to be congratulated upon having secured his valuable services, and, under his direction, will doubtless continue in the successful work in-augurated by the father of Dr. Rogers, the late Dr. W. E. Rogers.

COLLINS'S

Grand Excursion to New Orlean and the Great American Exposition, on Wednesday, March 17, 1886,

Via the Old and Reliable Illinois Central, "the Model Railroad of the South."

ONE OF THE CHEAPEST AND MOST ATTRACTIVE TRIPS ON RECORD.

Just Think of the Rates for the Round Trip-To New Orleans and Return :

From Fulton (Ky.) Martin, etc. only .. 87 50 From Milan, Jackson, etc., only ..... 6 50 From Grand Junction, etc., only .. From Holly Springs, Oxford, etc. only 5 00 From Gronsda, Winona, etc., only ..... 4 00 From Durant, etc., only ... 3 50

And even these low rates include tickets of admission to the great Exposition, which of itself alone is worth the cost of the trip. Tickets good to return at pleasure on all regular trains for TEN DAYS! On Wednesday, March 17, 1886, a special train, with ample and first-class accommodations in every respect, in-cluding Pullman Palace Sleepers, will leave Fulton for New Orleans, via the Illinois Central railroad, at 9 o'clock a.m.; will leave Milan at 10:55 a.m.; Jackson at 12:10 p.m.; Grand Junction at 3 p.m.; Holly Springs at 4:10 p.m.; Grand Junction at 3 p.m.; Holly Springs at 4:10 p.m.; Grand Junction at 3 p.m.; Holly Springs at 4:10 p.m.; Grand Junction at 3 p.m.; Holly Springs at 4:10 p.m.; Grand Junction at 3 p.m.; Holly Springs at 4:10 p p.m.; Grenada at 7:30 p.m.; Durant at 9:45 p.m., thus giving a Daylight Arrival in the Crescent City at about 8 a.m. on the 18th.

This is indeed a rare and first-class opportunity for everybody, and the attention of the ladies in particular is called to this excursion, as it will certainly prove a charming and delightful trip for them.

Special arrangements have been made with the hotels in New Orleans for the benefit of this excursion. Buy your tickets at once, secure sleeping-car berths or sections if wanted, and avail yourself of this very cheap and delightful opportunity to visit the great Exposition and the beautiful "Crescent City," as this is the most attractive season of the year. Tickets for sale at the above and other stations by the regular ticket agents of the Illinois Central railroad. For further information, address
